OSKAR PFISTER AWARD RECIPIENTS

The Oskar Pfister Award honors the Rev. Oskar Pfister, a distinguished Swiss pastor/psychoanalyst and life-long colleague of Sigmund Freud, who promoted the dialog between psychiatry and religion. This award is presented to an individual who is dedicated to continuing that dialog. Conferred conjointly by the Committee on Religion, Spirituality and Psychiatry of the American Psychiatric Association (APA) and the Association of Professional Chaplains, the award and its associated lecture are presented at annual meetings of the APA.

Criteria for Selection

Recipients of the Oskar Pfister Award are those who have:

- Made sustained professional contributions to the interfaces of psychiatry, religion and spirituality through research and clinical practice,
- Have disseminated findings through lectures and publications that have clinical relevance to practicing psychiatrists and clergy, and
- Been recognized by their peers for creative and original contributions to the dialogue between the fields of religion and psychiatry.

The Oskar Pfister Award was co-sponsored by the Association of Mental Health Clergy from 1983 to 1998, and thereafter by the Association of Professional Chaplains. In order to maintain continuity with this award, we have included in this one list all recipients from the AMHC (1983 – 1998) up through the Association of Professional Chaplains (1998 – present).
